

VISITING FELLOWSHIPS IN THE HISTORY OF ISLAM IN SOUTH ASIA

Applications are invited for up to two Visiting Fellowships associated with the Centre's Atlas project on Muslim social and intellectual history of South Asia, 13th-18th century. The successful candidates will normally be at a post-doctoral level. For more information on the project, please see: <https://www.oxcis.ac.uk/the-atlas-project>

Each Visiting Fellowship is tenable for eight months from January 2026. It carries a stipend of £8,000; desk space in the Atlas Office; and single residential accommodation.

Shortlisted candidates will be interviewed online.

To apply, please go to: <https://www.oxcis.ac.uk/form/visiting-fellowship-atlas-proj>

Closing date: 1 October 2025